Rules and Regulations for Assignments

Rules and Regulations:

1. The assignment must be the work of the student and not shared or completed by any other student.
2. Students will be penalised for plagiarising or simply copying passages from the study notes, other texts and from another student's assignment/project/rough work, etc.
3. Students working in groups when compiling an assignment will be penalised if it is established that they have submitted identical assignments.
4. Students may work together but must not submit similar or identical assignments. You must be able to show that you worked independently.
5. If a student does not pass an assessment, he/she may not resubmit the assignment.
6. Retain a copy of each assignment before submitting it, in case the original does not reach the IEX office.
7. The assignment due date refers up to which specific day assignments will be accepted for marking purposes. The deadline is 3:00 pm on the assignment due date. Late assignments will be accepted, but 25 marks will be deducted from the maximum mark if received after 3:00pm on the due date and up to 5:00pm the following day after which no assignment will be accepted.
8. Students who are posting their assignments must ensure that the assignment is posted 21 days before the assignment due date.
9. Assignments may NOT be submitted via fax or e-mail.
10. ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE REMARKED AFTER THEY ARE HANDED IN AND MARKED.
11. Students must comply with all the rules on plagiarism; all the work contributed in this assignment must be acknowledged and properly referenced. Please familiarise yourself with the correct referencing technique available on the website www.iex.co.za.
12. Students will be penalised if they fail to observe all of the above.

Declaration:

I hereby declare that I have read, understood and complied with the assignment rules and regulations as stipulated above. I agree to abide by these rules. I have compiled and completed the assignment on my own and I have contributed 100% to the individual assignment. I have submitted and attached my complete and correct assignment to this cover sheet. I understand that if the incorrect assignment is handed in, it will not be marked.
